Man Arrested for Lewd Conduct in Athletic Field Parking Lot

Hingham, MA – A Hingham man was arrested Wednesday afternoon after a police received a complaint that a man was exposing himself in his car in a youth athletic field and public park parking lot.

On August 22, 2018 at 3:32pm Officers were dispatched to the Lynch Athletic Field parking lot at 224 Beal St. after a witness called police to report a man was sitting in a car with his driver's door open, naked from the waist down, exposing and touching himself. The witness said before Officers arrived children and adults were in the same parking lot on bicycles heading into Bare Cove Park. The witness also took a cell phone photo of the man before Officers arrived.

Officers arrived in the lot, walked up to the car, and observed the man still exposing himself. His pants were on the passenger seat. The driver's door was open facing Beal St. The parking lot is for the Lynch Athletic Field which is a youth baseball and football field. It is also a parking area and entrance for Bare Cove Park.

Arrested was David L. Hurley, age 83, of 20 Brewer Beach Road, Hingham, MA. He was charged with: 1) Open and Gross Lewdness 2) Disorderly Conduct 3) Disturbing the Peace. After booking, he was released on his personal recognizance. He was arraigned at Hingham District Court on August 23. He was released on $5,000 surety with conditions that he stay away from all public parks and schools and have no unsupervised contact with any children under the age of 18. He is due to return to court on September 18, 2018.
