Hingham, MA – Two Officers were injured Thursday after being attacked by a man who refused to leave a job site. The man and two Officers were transported to the hospital. All were treated and released. The man was arrested and faces several charges.

On Thursday, November 19, 2020 at 12:17pm, Officers were sent to a home on Thaxter Street for a report by a landscaping company that an employee refused to leave after the job was completed.
